

Happy New Year!

Parties and celebrations will fill homes across the world this Saturday as families welcome in the New Year. Hopefully, retailers have had a busy Christmas and will be successful in clearing remaining stock in the January sales, making room for exciting new ranges for 2017.

Harrogate is 'the' destination for anyone in the gift or festive industry – be it garden centres, tourist attraction shops, department stores, independent retailers and in fact anyone looking for exciting new ranges for the home and garden. We are just a week away from the show and look forward to welcoming you all from 8th to 11th January. Be prepared for a bumper event this year – allow plenty of time to see the very best the industry has to offer.

All that sparkles

Exhibiting for the first time, it's all sparkle and shine on the Culinary Concepts stand as the company reveals its brand new Christmas decoration collection alongside its popular giftware lines.

This includes a delightful smorgasbord of baubles and hanging decorations, each delicately hand crafted and featuring fabulous fabrics; bead embellishments; lavish organza and glass; mercury glass candle holders and votives; plus show-stopping mercury glass Christmas tree ornaments. Alongside the new Christmas collections, it will also be showcasing a handpicked selection of its top Christmas gifts with everything from beautiful barware, perfect for partying away the festive season, to iconic cheese knives and deli accessories.

Prepare to be dazzled

With more than 75 years in the business, NOMA's expertise in Christmas lighting is second to none and its 2017 collection takes the brand back to these roots with firm focus on all things lighting related. Visitors to Harrogate will be treated to a dazzling display with the range including light chains, home styling accessories, decorative trees, acrylic figures and outdoor lighting.

There are hundreds of new products, including new innovations from the NOMA team like its gorgeous range of new pre-lit LED decorative Willow trees. NOMA is also looking forward to showing off its new Northern Lights range which is so top secret, no product images are being handed out as of yet, so customers will need to head to Harrogate to see them for themselves!

Going for gold

Fine china mugs are part of Lesser and Pavey's on-going Gold Edition range – designed in house and highly popular. Visitors to Harrogate Christmas & Gift will see new additions including two LED lights 'Champagne' and 'Prosecco'.

Early 2017 will see the inclusion of mugs aimed at 'the ladies', Gin and Vodka themed mugs and glasses and a selection of jewellery dishes. New compact mirrors and manicure sets, stationery and shopping bags. The range already features very popular stemless wine glasses and stemless flutes as well as mugs, wine glasses, beer tankards, candles, light up signs, shoppers and more.
