

Hark the herald – Harrogate is here!

Just when you thought that the fun was over – Harrogate Christmas & Gift opens its doors this weekend promising plenty of extra-festive cheer, plus the opportunity to fill those order books with fantastic gifts to keep customers happy for the coming year.

The show offers over 35 new exhibitors (and still has last minute bookings coming in!). Many of these are in Hall Q so be sure to head in that direction – and together with all of your favourite festive and gift brands – there are plenty of new gems waiting to be discovered.

Don't forget to book your hotel accommodation - Mice Concierge has negotiated some favourable rates for show participants – and of course, if you haven't already, register online at www.harrogatefair.com

Let it snow

Riffelmacher is proud to launch its brand-new snow collection at Harrogate this year – a core product, but so often overlooked. The company's collection is 'made in Germany' to the highest standards and at a price to meet every buyer's needs – whether that be for retail or commercial use. So if you are looking for snow flakes, snow blankets, icicles, ice cubes or scatter snow:

Baby it's cold

Laura and the team return to the show with another collection of beautiful Christmas jumpers featuring all of the favourite festive characters. Offering high quality knit with 3D embellishments, you'll find styles for the entire family with classic Nordic designs through to slightly more 'loud and proud' choices.

Frosty the unicorn

There have been some great new emerging colour schemes and fabric trends this year, which Keel Toys predicts to grow further for Christmas 2019. The trend of rose gold and soft fluorescents has been incorporated into Animotsu with a new four assorted selection of elephant, unicorn, bear and chihuahua in both 15cm and 25cm sizes. New for 2019 includes the Glittermotsu ranges finished in iridescent sequins in three product mixes with characters including penguin, unicorn, dinosaur, bear, elephant and monkey. Simply stroke the sequins to reveal the contrasting colour. Available in 20cm and 30cm sizes, the range is guaranteed to add glitter to your festive sales this year.

What child is this?

Look no further than History & Heraldry for cute tree decorations for children with a personalised twist. These delightful hand-painted decorations feature adorable festive characters – Santa, Rudolph Reindeer, Frosty Snowman with pink or blue accessories – each holding a plaque with a child's name and fun sentiment which kids will just adore. A display of these will get your tills ringing with Christmas cheer!
