

Happy New Year

Another year, another set of resolutions; but whatever your dreams and aspirations for 2024, the Harrogate Christmas and Gift team wishes you good health, wealth and lots of happiness for the year ahead.

One thing that, we can promise you is that this year's show will offer you plentiful opportunities to fill your store with the latest innovations in festive decorations and gifts for all occasions. In fact, so large is the product offering by many of this year's exhibitors, their teams are already heading to Harrogate to start setting up their stands two weeks prior to the event. We are all looking forward to welcoming you – but below is yet another taster of some of the fabulous ranges that you will find on display. More information on the website at www.harrogatefair.com
